

Looking for Music Teachers

We are looking for individuals who are friendly, creative, and great communicators. Applicants must have training and or experience. Priority will be given to those who have experience working with children. Greater consideration will be given to candidates with a music degree and RCM training. Support is provided as required.

Lessons are ongoing, and take place at the Chilliwack Academy of Music.

Responsibilities

- preparing lessons
- teaching weekly lesson
- student progress monitoring
- preparing students for exams and performances

Required

- musical education or significant performance experience

Helpful

- RCM certification
- prior experience working with children
- competency in other instruments

Location:

- Chilliwack BC

$30-$45.75 per hour